The River City Bike Kid

The potential of the Internet for opening up public discourse cannot be fully evaluated if the context in which it is produced is ignored and if issues of power involved in this context are not addressed. The British instructed the Egyptians to abandon the Sudan, and sent General Charles Gordon to co-ordinate the evacuation, but he was killed in January. When news of his death arrived in New South Wales in February the government offered to send forces and meet the contingent's expenses.
